

DIES National Multiplication Trainings (NMT) is jointly initiated by the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) and the German Rectors' Conference (HRK) with funding from the German Federal Ministry for Economic Development and Cooperation (BMZ). It aims to support DIES alumni as multipliers working in the field of higher education management and to promote the sustainability of the DIES trainings.

Under the DIES NMT programme, DIES alumni worldwide are encouraged to submit joint training proposals and the selected ones will be implemented with financial support from BMZ. All the trainings deal with topics in the fields of higher education management with adaptation to regional/national needs.

DIES NMT programme is coordinated by the Centre for Quality Development (ZfQ), University of Potsdam. Any questions related to the programme can be addressed to nmt@uni-potsdam.de.
